

At what pool size does the reading match the full-pool value?
(within 10% of that value, nine times in ten; grey = the pool we have)

Note: the n scenes are drawn from the pool itself, so agreement is forced as $n \rightarrow N$. A row that hits the ceiling means "not settled even at full pool", not "this many suffice".